President's Message ...

With the mid-term national elections coming up the Guild will be nominating officers of its own at its General Meeting on Saturday, October 27. Positions open for nomination include Awards Co-Chair and Photographer. Elections for these positions among others will take place at the Guild's December 1 Holiday Potluck Party.

Also want to remind everyone about the Autumn Group Project "Waterscapes" where those who have chosen to participate, will present their art at the December 1 Holiday Potluck Party.

Denis Wik, President

Autumn Group Project: "Waterscapes" Presentation Deadline: December 1

Those participating in the Autumn Group Project will be able to present their finished work on Saturday, December 1 when we hold our annual Holiday Potluck Party. Please remember that your art must be an original creation and no framing is necessary but your art must be dry to handle by the specified deadline. You may use any medium to convey a waterscape.

Guild Copyright Guidelines

In order to avoid liability and the burden of determining whether a particular image involves copyright infringement, the following are guidelines for Campbell Artists' Guild (Guild) members.

The Guild assumes that it is the responsibility of the artist to honestly follow these guidelines and assumes no liability for work that is submitted or displayed if these guidelines are not followed. The Guild reserves the right to disqualify a painting if there is reasonable doubt about copyright infringement or plagiarism.

- Work entered for competition or show must be the artist's original work in concept and execution.
- Work cannot be copied from copyrighted material or photographs belonging to another person or organization except with the copyright holder's explicit written permission.
- Work cannot be the reproduction of a painting done by another person even if the original artist is acknowledged on the painting.
- Work cannot be the reproduction of a historic painting.

MICHAEL ROGAN September 22

Unfortunately, I was not in attendance for the September 22 General Meeting so I'm unable to expound on the details of Michael's demonstration. Thanks to Guild member Cheryl Fuelleman for graciously stepping in for me as photographer. For those of you who did attend, here are photo highlights of his demonstration.
