Watercolor

3rd Place Winner - "South Bay Hills" by Lynn Rogers

Comment from Juror:

"Simple and elegant,
good brushwork.

I like the bold blue as well."

2nd Place Winner - "Old Salzburg" by Patricia Smith

Comment from Juror:

"Lovely scene.

Great light, shadows, and reflection in the water."

1st Place Winner - "Tahoe Reflections" by Barbara Niemann

Comment from Juror:

"Very nice color palette
and composition,
good use of the medium."

Campbell Artists' Guild

Oil

3rd Place Winner - "Autumn Begins" by Barb Overholt

Comment from Juror:

"I feel like I'm in this field
and can smell the rain coming.
Lovely lighting and subtle textures."

2nd Place Winner - "Hibiscus" by Smruti Kurse

Comment from Juror:

"Great brushstrokes and love the different tones of red throughout, contrasts very well with the greens and blues in the piece."

1st Place Winner - "The Snooze" by Barb Overholt

Comment from Juror:

"Great detail (cat fur, whiskers, and worn edges around books)
and wonderful character.
Great composition and color palette as well."

Photography

3rd Place Winner - "San Francisco Sunset" by Jennifer Glover

Comment from Juror:

"It's almost like an abstract painting
- simple but effective colors
and textures, interesting 'lines'
in the clouds."

2nd Place Winner - “Moonlit Inca Ruins” by Kris Rogers

Comment from Juror:

“Great sense of scale,
nice composition (really draws your eyes up to the sky).”

1st Place Winner - "Paradise Sky" by Elton Glover

Comment from Juror:

"Beautiful, calm scene
with striking colors.
I enjoy the reflection
of light on the waves."

Mixed Media

3rd Place Winner - “Bohemian Scene” by Lynn Rogers

Comment from Juror:

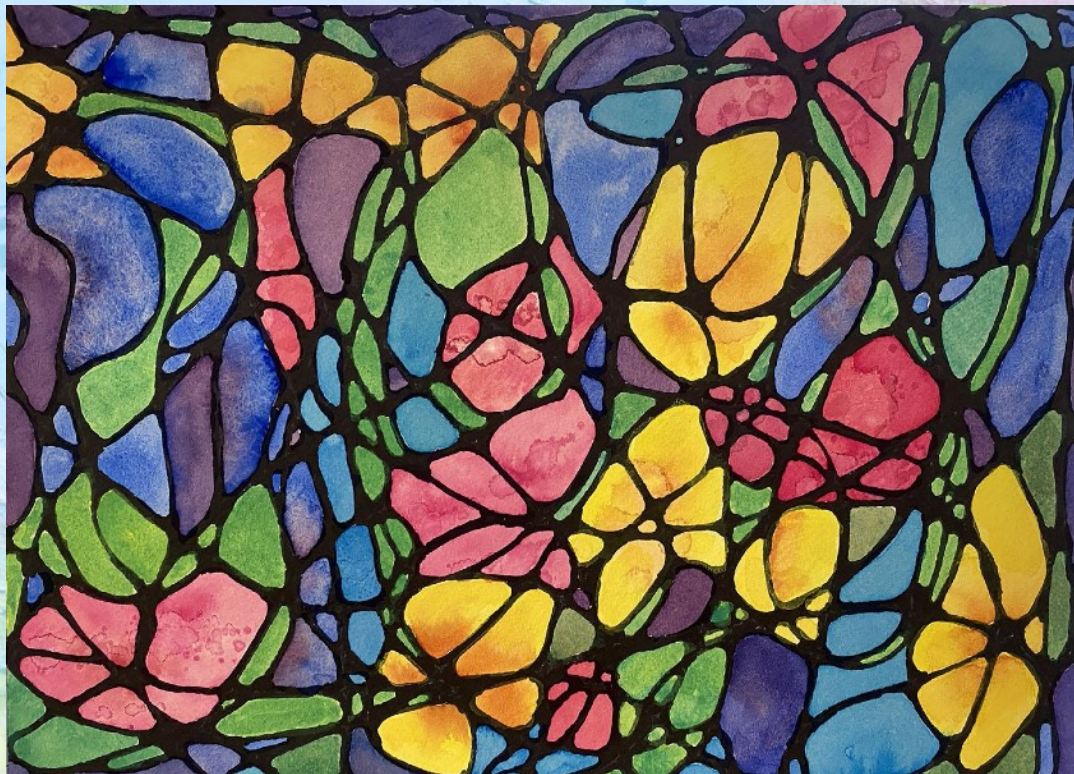

“Fun and bright
color palette,
nice bold brushstrokes.”

2nd Place Winner - "The Flower Garden" by Sharon La Bouff

Comment from Juror:

"I like how it looks like stained glass, a great concept for a garden (flowers are beautiful and fragile like stained glass)."

1st Place Winner - "Identify the Crow" by Jude Tolley

Comment from Juror:

"Very nice detail,
interesting composition,
good movement
in the flying crows."

Acrylic

3rd Place Winner - "Wilderness " by Liyuza Eisbach

Comment from Juror:

"Good use of depth,
an enjoyable
serene scene."

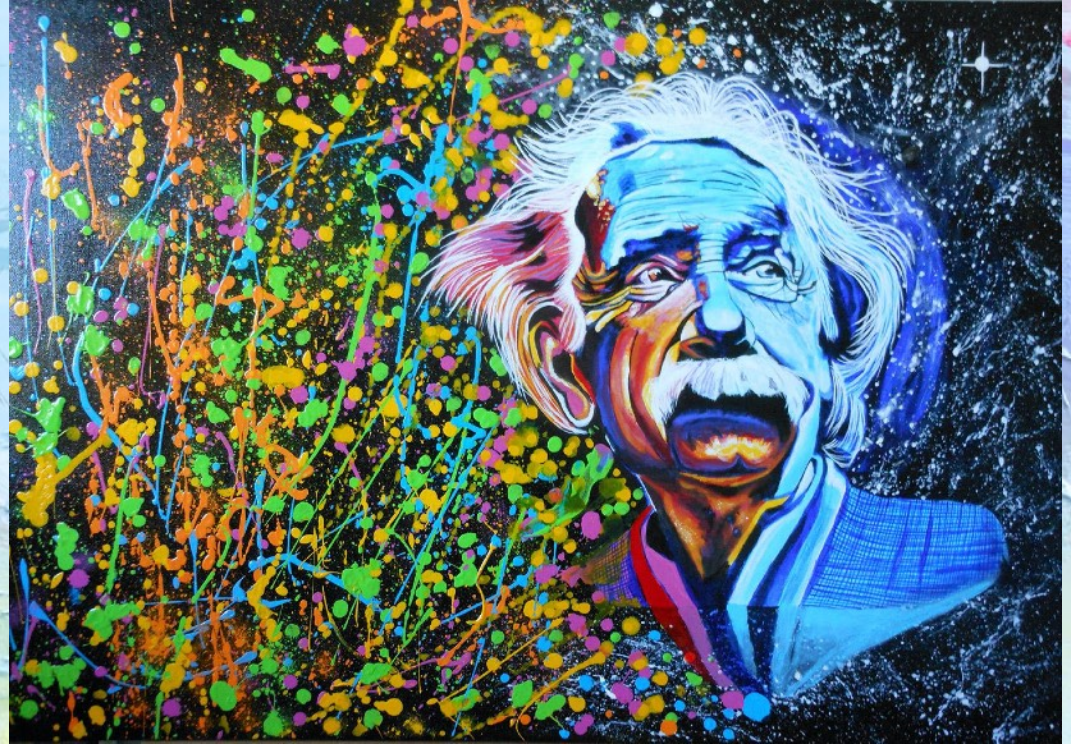

2nd Place Winner - "Jackson Pollock Meets Albert Einstein" by Denis Wik

Comment from Juror:

"Fun piece combining two geniuses in different fields.

Nice, bold, bright colors."

1st Place Winner - “Strata” by Elton Glover

Comment from Juror:

“Wonderful texture and lines.
Great movement.
Gives me impressions of
topography, ocean waves,
and outer space.”

Charcoal - Ink - Pastel - Colored Pencil

3rd Place Winner - "Ray & His Granddaughter" by Jude Tolley

Comment from Juror:

"Great emotion,
a lovely scene.
Simple but effective line work."

2nd Place Winner - “Stranger Things” by Diann Klink

Comment from Juror:

“Very interesting work,
I see scenes of nature
but also neurons.
Great colors.”

1st Place Winner - “ ‘Gool-buhaar’ ” by Smruti Kurse

Comment from Juror:

“The lines and textures
give the piece
a nice movement.
Great depth of color
in the leaves and shadows.”

Best In Show

Best In Show - “The Snooze” by Barb Overholt

Comment from Juror:

“This work is very well done in regards to composition, technique, detail, and color palette.

It is a believable snapshot of a simple, yet lovely subject.

The cat and books both look well-loved.

A great piece overall.”
